

Frequently Asked Questions

How do we invite family to the events?

Your family is invited to all events, outside of judging sessions. You will work with your Candidate Committee for details.

I don't have a sponsor. What do I do?

We will assist you with the proper tools to gain a sponsor. You may submit your application without a sponsor listed, but you are ultimately responsible for securing your sponsorship.

Who provides us our candidate clothing?

The Candidate Committee will provide some of your clothing during your candidacy. You will be responsible for most outfits or select items, such as shoes.

What if I can't make an appearance?

Communicate with the Candidate Committee.

What if I can't afford the entire year?

If selected, you are responsible for funding your year. You should work with your Prime Minister and Royal Family.

Who is our contact with the festival office during candidacy?

The Candidate Committee is your first point of contact.

What are the Former Queens Organization and the Past Princess Organization?

These are alumni organizations that provide support and mentorship to the selected Royal Ladies.

What is the Ambassadors Organization?

A volunteer group within the community that supports the Saint Paul Winter Carnival.

Do you have to have former royalty experience to apply?

No

What are the age requirements?

Minimum of 21 by January 15, 2025

What is the time commitment as a candidate?

Multiple events between November 2024 and January 2025. Events may be held on weekdays or weekends, and may be during business hours or evening hours.
